	Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015300330007-3	25
	REPORT NO.
	Airfield and Conger Vacerne in Varenz	killister et stormetter riksserspiel samstasse
	THE RESIDENCE OF THE PROPERTY	man
EVALUA	TION25X1PLACE_OBTAINED	25
DATE O	F CONTENT 1 Sentember to 7 October 1952	a Kan ni dalam yana bah daga M
DATE O	BTAINED! 25X1 DATE PREPARED 11 Hovember 1952	and a second
REFERE	NCES	modern vojskihov vojskihov vrzednikov
PAGES.	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	Open of the control o REMARK	(S	and a common constraint in e-Advadentici dell'ampa	PLE STATE OF THE S	had is all their is to her called this
	DO NOT CIRCULATE
	DO INOT
	25X1	THES I TO SHARE WELL SHEET SHEET
		257
5X1	had become the military post of the Volkspolizei. Recenstruction work on	25X
	not kept.	e i not kept.
	not kept.  2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Panzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Coviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale constructi	d in erved blue on not kept.  2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartere the Panzer Kaserme in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obsamong the women. A Coviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale constructi work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VEB Kamenz was charged will construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and New dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. Coording	d in erved blue on in tar not kept.  2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartere the Panzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Soviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale constructi work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VBB Kamenz was charged with construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and New dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code signation Wiesengrund. The same informants also mentioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cables at various locations outside the barracks inst	d in erved blue on in th gers- gers- gers-
	2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Panzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Soviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale construction work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VBB Kamenz was charged wit construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and New dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code signation Wiesengrund. The same informants also mentioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cobles at various locations outside the barracks instations and beyond the field boundary. The VP personnel wore the usual MP uniform and, on their caps, the police star on a black-red-golden cockade. They were no special insignia except for the green lightning on an evaluation black background on their sheeves. In the afternoon of 25 September, 4 Screen	d in erved blue on in the gers-gers-gers-gers-gers-gers-gers-gers-
X1	not kept.  2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Panzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Soviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale construction work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VEB Kamenz was charged with construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and New dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code signation Wiesengrund. The same informants alsomentioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cables at various locations outside the barracks installations and beyond the field boundary. The VP personnel wore the usual WP uniform and, on their caps, the police star on a black-red-golden cockade	d in erved blue on in the gers- gers- gers- de- r- dela- viet state
X1	2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Fanzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were observed among the women. A Coviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale construction work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VEB Kamenz was charged with construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and key, dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code of signation Wiesengrund. The same informants also montioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cables at various locations outside the barracks instations and beyond the field boundary. The VP personnel wore the usual KP uniform and, on their caps, the police star on a black-red-golden occkade. They wore no special insignia except for the green lightning on an evall black background on their sleeves. In the afternoon of 28 September, 4 Sconficers, 2 female officers and 35 air force soldier arrived in Kenenz we the regular train from the direction of Armsdorf near Dresden. Except for soldiers who had to walk they were picked up by truck and hauled the barracks installation. No aircraft were observed at the field.  3. On 23 September, three temporary buildings used as day rooms for the construction of the field north of the	d in erved blue on in th gers- gers- de- de- truction spur
X1	2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Fanzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Coviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale construction work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VBB Kamenz was charged with construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and New dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code signation Wiesengrund. The same informants alsomentioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cables at various locations outside the barracks instations and beyond the field boundary. The VP personnel wore the usual WP uniform and, on their caps, the police star on a black-red-golden cockade. They were no special insignia except for the green lighthing on an evel black background on their sleeves. In the afternoon of 25 September, h Scoofficers, 2 female officers and 35 air force soldier arrived in Kamenz we the regular train from the direction of Amsdorf near Dresden. Except for soldiers who had to walk they were picked up by truck and hauled the barracks installation. No aircraft were observed at the field.	d in erved blue on in th gers- g de- r- dla- viet ich il d to truction sour
X1	2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Fanzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Soviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale construction work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VEB Kamenz was charged wit construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and how dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code signation Wiesengrund. The same informants also mentioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cobles at various locations outside the barracks institutions and beyond the field boundary. The VP personnel were the usual MF uniform and, on their caps, the police star on a black-red-golden cockade. They were no special insignia except for the green lightning on an evaluations black background on their sleeves. In the afternoon of 28 September, h Scoofficers, 2 female officers and 35 air force soldier arrived in hancus we the regular train from the direction of Armsdorf near Dresden. Except for soldiers who had to walk they were picked up by truck and hauled the barracks installation. No aircraft were observed at the field.  3. On 23 September, three temporary buildings used as day rooms for the construction and cleaning up work. So far, no work has been done on the land field. After 25 September, 10 low-wing monoplanes were parked at the field.	d in erved blue on in th gers- gde- r- dla- viet ich tl d to truction sour con- ing
X1	2. An estimated 1,200 VP, including some women in VP uniforms, were quartered the Fanzer Kaserne in Kamenz on 27 and 28 September. No officers were obstamong the women. A Soviet unit of about 50 men wearing black-bordered epaulets was also quartered in the Panzer Kaserne. Large scale construction work, including repairs and construction of new buildings, was being done the barracks installation and at the field. The VEB Kamenz was charged wit construction work in the barracks installation, while the Bautzen and how dorf Bauunions were given the contract for the work at the field. According to the workers from Kamenz, the entire construction project had the code signation Wiesengrund. The same informants also mentioned that another air field was under construction. Several small details of VP men were laying telephone lines and cobles at various locations outside the barracks institutions and beyond the field boundary. The VP personnel were the usual MF uniform and, on their caps, the police star on a black-red-golden cockade. They were no special insignia except for the green lightning on an evaluations black background on their sleeves. In the afternoon of 28 September, h Scoofficers, 2 female officers and 35 air force soldier arrived in hancus we the regular train from the direction of Armsdorf near Dresden. Except for soldiers who had to walk they were picked up by truck and hauled the barracks installation. No aircraft were observed at the field.  3. On 23 September, three temporary buildings used as day rooms for the construction and cleaning up work. So far, no work has been done on the land field. After 25 September, 10 low-wing monoplanes were parked at the field.	d in erved blue on in th gers- gde- r- dla- viet ich tl d to truction sour con- ing it can be assumed that the training of VP rilets will start soon.

SECREC